La Trobe Paramedic Leadership and Education Conference

Limited places at this unique conference, book now!

When: 11th - 14th February, 2013
Where: La Trobe Rural Health School, [MAP]
Sharon Street, Bendigo (off-road parking available)

Topics:
- Research methods and evidence based practice
- Paramedic clinical placements (exploratory research)
- Measuring and improving ambulance service performance
- Giving and receiving feedback from clinical simulation
- Topical issues – clinical and non-clinical
- Non-verbal communication techniques
- Community engagement in rural health planning and policy
- Leadership and supervision of staff, including first responders and ambulance service volunteers

Highlights of the program:
- Screening of feature film – Paramedico, followed by a Q & A session
  - See the Trailer [Paramedico]
- Keynote Speakers
  - Prof Jane Farmer, La Trobe Rural Health School
  - Gary Wingrove, Mayo Health
  - Len Fiori, Ambulance Service Director, St John WA
  - Aarron Reinert, Lakes Region EMS, Minnesota
  - Associate Professor Veronica Madigan, University of Notre Dame
- Simulation exercises in our new Paramedic Simulation Centre
  - Dr Natalie Smith, Wollongong Hospital
- Exploring issues through Community Conversations and a Magic Roundtable

To Register email Natalie n.morris@latrobe.edu.au (Registrations close 4th February, 2013)
Paramedics $200 – register quickly and be sponsored (Hand and PA scholarships available on a first come basis – give us your staff/member number)
Paramedic Students $60 (subsidised by Ferno Australia)

For Further Information contact
Peter O’Meara, email p.omeara@latrobe.edu.au Telephone: 03 5444 7870

Sponsors and Supporters

[Logos of sponsors and supporters]